

Aruba's youth get glamorous for the Prom held by the Kiwanis Key Club of Colegio Arubano.

The students of Colegio Arubano showed their style at the annual prom organized by the Key Club, the youth branch of the Aruba Kiwanis Club. The Tropicana Showroom at the Royal Cabana Casino was filled with young ladies in gorgeous gown, and young men dressed to kill as they danced the night away under colorful balloon arches. Some favorite island bands like HoneyPot and popular DJ'S provided the beat that kept the dance floor full. Checkpoint color had a digital photo studio set up so beautifully dressed couples and groups could immediately take home a unique souvenir of this special event. High school students may dress super casual these days, but the prom proves that everybody loves a chance to dress up!
